100 YEARS' SAILING RACE

The 100 Years' Sailing Race took place on March 23 and 24, benefiting from excellent weather conditions and a remarkable collaboration with the Clube Marítimo de Desportos (CMD).

Approximately 35 boats participated in the race in the following categories: optimist, radical laser, laser 4.7, dolphin and 420.

João Cardoso, Commodore of the Clube Naval, thanked the gathering and the spectacular collaboration of the Clube Marítimo de Desportos. More photos on www.clubenaival.co.mz

EUROPEAN
CHAMPIONSHIPS
BERLIN/GERMANY
12.-14. APRIL 2013

This year the Kendo Association in Mozambique (AKIMO), which started its activities in 2003 at Clube Naval, will send for the first time a National Mozambican Team to the 25th European Kendo Championships which will be held in April 12-14, in Berlin, Germany. The Clube Naval has always supported the development of this unique martial arts, which is Japanese sword-fighting. The selected Kendo team has been training for this competition during the last two years under the professional coaching of 7th Dan Sensei Suenaga, who has been sent by the Japanese organization JICA for this purpose.

On March 21, Timothy Scott-Rutt, Manuel Martins, Samora Machel and Sean Frey received the 8th Kyu, after an examination passed with flying colors.

EXHIBITION OF KOK NAM'S PHOTOGRAPHS

As part of the commemoration of the centenary, the direction of the Clube Naval organized between 13th of March and 30 of April, an exhibition of the photographs of Kok Nam.

On the opening day, 13th of March, Aurelio Rocha, vice-president of the General Assembly did a retrospective of Kok Nam's life, also called "the baobab of photojournalism" or "the photograph of Impressionism" in presence of the President of the Mozambican Association of Photography, João Costa, also known as Funcho, and several members.

Aurelio Rocha reminded us that Kok Nam, born in 1939 in the then city of Lourenço Marques, was the son of Chinese parents. A disciple of Ricardo Rangel, he stood out as an emeritus photographer and founded, with others, the Mozambican Association of Photography, the newspapers Mediafax, Savana and the communication company Mediacoop.

Kok Nam known for his rigor and work discipline was present in all the most important historical moments and also, obviously, some of the toughest ones that the country has known...
